| Freezer | Temperature | Log | (°C) |
|---------|-------------|-----|------|
|---------|-------------|-----|------|

| MONTH & YEAR |                |          | FREEZE                | R LOCATIO | N/ID  | myCAvax ID | VFC PIN              | Keep freezer in OK range:   |  |
|--------------|----------------|----------|-----------------------|-----------|-------|------------|----------------------|---|--|
|              |                |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | -50.0°C15.0°C   |  |
| Day          | Time           | Initials | Alarm                 | Current   | Min   | Max        | myCAvax/SHOTS ID |   |  |
| Exam-        | 8:00 am | NN       |                       | -26.1     | -29.1 | -23.8      |                      | Check temperatures twice a day  |  |
| ole          | 4:00 pm | NN       | <ul> <li>✓</li> </ul> | -23.6     | -26.2 | -14.3      | 12345                | 1. Fill out month, year, refrigerator IE myCAvax ID and VFC PIN.        |  |
| 1            | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | <ol> <li>Record the time and your initials.</li> </ol>                  |  |
|              | pm             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | 3. Record a check if an alarm went o                                    |  |
| 2            | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | 4. Record Current, MIN, and MAX.  |  |
|              | pm             |          | +                     |           | +     |            |                      | 5. Clear MIN/MAX.   |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | 6. Ensure data logger is recording.                                     |  |
| 3            | pm             |          | +                     |           |       | +          |                      | IF ALARM WENT OFF:  |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | 1. Post "Do Not Use Vaccines" sign.                                     |  |
| 4            | pm             |          | +                     |           |       |            |                      | 2. Alert your supervisor.   |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | 3. Report excursion to  |  |
| 5            | pm             |          | +                     |           |       | +          |                      | myCAvax for BAP vaccine and toMyVFCvaccines.org for VFC vaccin      |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | Follow instructions provided.4. Record incident ID from             |  |
| 6            | pm             |          | +                     |           |       |            |                      | myCAvax (BAP) and SHOTS (VFC).  |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      |   |  |
| 7            | pm             |          |                       |           | +     | +          |                      | Supervisor's Review   |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | When log is complete, check all that                                    |  |
| 8            | pm             |          |                       |           |       | +          |                      | apply:  |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | Month/year/location/ID/PIN are recorded.                                |  |
| 9            | pm             |          | +                     |           |       | +          |                      | Temperatures were recorded twice  |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | daily.  |  |
| 10           | pm             |          | +                     |           | +     | +          |                      | I reviewed data files for all the dayon this log to find any missed |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | excursions.   |  |
| 11           | pm             |          | +                     |           |       | +          |                      | Date downloaded:  |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | Any excursions were reported to myCAvax (BAP) or SHOTS (VFC).           |  |
| 12           | pm             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | We understand that falsifying this                                      |  |
| 13           |                |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | log is grounds for vaccine replacement and termination from the     |  |
|              | am             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | BAP/VFC programs.   |  |
|              | pm             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | On-Site Supervisor's Name:  |  |
| 14           | am             |          | +                     |           | +     |            |                      |   |  |
| -            | pm             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | Signature:  |  |
| 15           | am             |          | +                     |           |       |            |                      | Date:   |  |
|              | pm             |          |                       |           |       |            |                      | Staff Names and Initials:   |  |

Instructions

Keep all temperature logs and data files for three years.

BAP: (833) 502-1245

Freezer Temperature Log (°C)

| ΛΟΝΤ | TH & YEAR |          | FREEZE | R LOCATION | I/ID | myCAvax ID | VFC PIN              | Keep freezer in OK range:  |
|------|-----------|----------|--------|------------|------|------------|----------------------|--|
|      |           |          |        |            |      |            |                      | -50.0°C -15.0°C  |
| Day  | Time      | Initials | Alarm  | Current    | Min  | Max        | myCAvax/SHOTS ID |  |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            | 51101510             | Check temperatures twice a day                                   |
| 16   | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | 1. Fill out month, year, refrigerator I                          |
| 17   | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | myCAvax ID and VFC PIN.2. Record the time and your initials. |
|      | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | <ol> <li>Record a check if an alarm went of</li> </ol>           |
| 18   | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | 4. Record Current, MIN, and MAX.                                 |
|      | pm        |          | +      |            |      | - +        |                      | 5. Clear MIN/MAX.  |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | 6. Ensure data logger is recording.                              |
| 19   | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | IF ALARM WENT OFF:   |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | 1. Post "Do Not Use Vaccines" sign.                              |
| 20   | pm        |          | +      |            |      | -          |                      | 2. Alert your supervisor.  |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | 3. Report excursion to myCAvax for BAP vaccine and to            |
| 21   | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | MyVFCvaccines.org for VFC vacci                                  |
| 22   | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Follow instructions provided.4. Record incident ID from      |
|      | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | myCAvax (BAP) and SHOTS (VFC)                                    |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      |  |
| 23   | pm        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | Supervisor's Review  |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | When log is complete, check all that                             |
| 24   | pm        |          | +      |            |      | - +        |                      | apply:   |
|      | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Month/year/location/ID/PIN are recorded.                         |
| 25   | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Temperatures were recorded twi daily.                            |
| 26   | am        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | I reviewed data files for all the da                             |
|      | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | on this log to find any missed excursions.                       |
| 27   | am        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Date downloaded:   |
|      | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Any excursions were reported to                                  |
| 28   | am        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | myCAvax (BAP) or SHOTS (VFC).                                    |
| 29   | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | log is grounds for vaccine replace                               |
|      | am        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      | ment and termination from the BAP/VFC programs.                  |
|      | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | On-Site Supervisor's Name:                                       |
| 30   | am        |          | +      |            |      |            |                      |  |
|      | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Signature:   |
| 31   | am        |          | +      |            |      | -          |                      | Date:  |
| 51   | pm        |          |        |            |      |            |                      | Staff Names and Initials:  |

Keep all temperature logs and data files for three years.

BAP: (833) 502-1245

vaccine.

Instructions